Respectfully submitted,
DOROTHY HALLMAN
Chief Clerk, House of Representatives

SENATE RESOLUTION 748

Senator McKnight offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, It is a special privilege for the Senate of Texas to pay tribute to young people of this state who have gained recognition for outstanding achievement; and

WHEREAS, Two young ladies who qualify highly for this honor are Carrin Foreman Patman, the daughter of our distinguished colleague, Senator William N. Patman and Mrs. Patman; and Sarah Jeannette Goodfriend, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Goodfriend; and

WHEREAS, On May 5, 1973, they won the final round in the 1973 University of Texas Interscholastic League State competition in Girls' Debate, by a 5 to 0 decision of the judges; this established them as first place winners and state champions in the AAAA division; they had previously won first place in the District 26 AAAA contest on April 5 in Austin and the Region 4 competition on April 14 in Corpus Christi, which qualified them for the state finals; and

WHEREAS, These two 17 year old students are juniors at Stephen F. Austin High School in Austin; they are members of the National Honor Society and both serve on the Student Council; Sarah serves as president and Carrin is vice-president of the Austin High School Debate Squad; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the 63rd Legislature of Texas congratulate Carrin Foreman Patman and Sarah Jeannette Goodfriend on winning first place in the 1973 University of Texas Interscholastic League state competition in Girls' Debate in the AAAA division; and commend their debate coach, Mrs. Georgiana K. Sims on her guidance and training which contributed greatly to the success of this debate team; and be it further

RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be prepared for Carrin and Sarah and for Mrs. Sims, under the seal of the Senate of Texas, as a memento of this occasion, and as an expression of our deep sense of pride in the accomplishments of these two outstanding young Texans.

The resolution was read.

On motion of Senator Herring and by unanimous consent, the names of the Lieutenant Governor and Senators were added to the resolution as signers thereof.

On motion of Senator McKnight, the resolution was adopted.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 13 WITH HOUSE AMENDMENT

Senator Jones called S.J.R. 13 from the President's table for consideration of the House amendment to the resolution.

The President laid the resolution and the House amendment before the Senate.

AMENDMENT NO. 1

Amend S.J.R. No. 13 by adding the words ", including those living alone" between the words "male or female" and the words ", not to exceed thirty cents" in the second sentence in Section 1-a of the quoted material; and by striking Section 2 and substituting the following:

Sec. 2. That Article VIII, Section 1-b, of the Texas Constitution, be amended to read as follows:

"Section 1-b. (a) Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000) of the assessed taxable value of all residence homesteads of married or unmarried adults, male or female, including those living alone, shall be exempt from all taxation for all State purposes.

"(b) From and after January 1, 1973, the governing body of any county, city, town, school district, or other political subdivision of the State may exempt by its own action not less than Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000) of the assessed value of residence homesteads of married or unmarried persons sixty-five (65) years of age or older, including those living alone, from all ad valorem taxes thereafter levied by the political subdivision. As an alternative, upon receipt of a petition signed by twenty percent (20%) of the voters who voted in the last preceding election held by the political subdivision, the governing body of the subdivision shall call an election to determine by majority vote whether an amount not less than Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000) as provided in the petition, of the assessed value of residence homesteads of persons sixty-five (65) years of age or over shall be exempt from ad valorem taxes thereafter levied by the political subdivision. Where any ad valorem tax has theretofore been pledged for the payment of any debt, the taxing officers of the political subdivision shall have authority to continue to levy and collect the tax against the homestead property at the same rate as the tax so pledged until the debt is discharged, if the cessation of the levy would impair the obligation of the contract by which the debt was created."
